Job 38 to 41

1. Job does not get the chance to respond to any of Elihu's assertions (Job 32-37), as the Lord arrives in a whirlwind and addresses Job directly (Job 38-41).
2. It is also worthwhile at this point to note that the Lord does not rebuke Elihu in the same way that He rebukes Eliphaz, Bildad, & Zophar (Job 42:7-9).

3. The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind (Job 38:1; 40:6). ḥr[š]ʿarah ^{#5591}: whirlwind, temptest, storm. Used 25x22vv. (2nd Kgs. 2:1,11; Ezek. 1:4; Jon. 1:4,12).
4. The Lord's messages is a message of rebuke (Job 38:2.3).
 - a. Who do you think you are? (v.2).
 - 1) The Lord declares that Job is darkening counsel, and that his words are not in accordance with true knowledge.
 - 2) Job had previously been a source for Godly counsel (Job 29:21).
 - 3) Job should have been extending Godly counsel to Eliphaz, Bildad, & Zophar, but has been too busy justifying himself to fulfill his spiritual-life work-assignment.
 - b. Gird up your loins and teach Me (v.3). If Job is really more righteous than God, then Job should be able to teach God!
5. The Lord rebukes Job through a series of unanswerable questions (Job 38:4-38).
 - a. "Where?" (v.4)
 - b. "Who?," & "Who?" (v.5)
 - c. "On what?," & "Who?" (v.6)
 - d. "When I made," "I placed," and "I said" (vv.9-11).
 - e. Five "Have you" questions (vv.12-23).
 - f. "Where?," "Who has?," "Has?," & "From Whose womb?" (vv.24-30)
 - g. Two "Can you?" questions (vv.34,35), (plus a third @v.39, see below).
 - h. "Who?," and "Who?" (vv.36,37).
6. The Lord continues the rebuke with a survey of 10 animals (6 land animals, 4 birds), and highlighting His work in creation (Job 38:39-41; 39:1-30).
 - a. Lions & ravens (Job 38:39-41).
 - b. Goats & deer (Job 39:1-4).
 - c. Wild (swift) donkeys (Job 39:5-8).
 - d. Wild ox (Job 39:9-12).
 - e. Ostriches (Job 39:13-18).
 - f. Horses (Job 39:19-25).
 - g. Hawks & Eagles (Job 39:26-30).

Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 2 of 19

7. The logic is such that if Job is really going to contend with God (Job 40:2), then Job must be qualified to be God. If Job is qualified to be God, then providing for these 10 animals ought to be quite simple!
8. The Lord calls Job, His contender/reprover, The Faultfinder (Job 40:2). rwšdy vicowr ^{#3250}: faultfinder, reprover. Used only here. rsy: yacer ^{#3256}: to chasten, discipline, instruct, admonish (Job 4:3). rswm muwsar ^{#4148}: instruction, correction, chastisement. Used 55x55vv. (Job 5:17; 20:3; 33:16; 36:10; Prov. 1:2,3,7,8 & often in Prov.; Isa. 53:3;).
9. Job confesses his insignificance, and agrees to close his mouth (Job 40:3-5).
10. The Lord immediately delivers a second rebuke out of the storm (Job 40:6).
 - a. The Lord challenges Job to take up the power of God and be God (Job 40:8-13).
 - b. The Lord admits that if Job could do such a thing, then he could be his own salvation, and have no need for God (Job 40:14).
11. The Lord concludes His rebuke by painting two terrible portraits of beings He created that Job is helpless before—Behemoth (Job 40:15-24), and Leviathan (Job 41:1-34).
 - a. [KJV] behemoth (footnote: an extinct animal of some kind) & leviathan (footnote: an extinct animal of some kind).
 - b. [NKVJ] the behemoth & Leviathan (no footnotes).
 - c. [NIV] the behemoth (footnote: Possibly the hippopotamus or the elephant) & the leviathan (footnote: Possibly the crocodile).
 - d. [NASB] Behemoth (footnote: Or the hippopotamus) & Leviathan (footnote: Or the crocodile).
 - e. God uses natural animals to instruct Job in His first rebuke (Job 38:39-41; 39:1-30). His second rebuke utilizes two dreadful creatures that are not a part of the animal realm.
12. Behemoth.
 - a. t/mhb behemowth ^{#930}: behemoth, i.e. hippopotamus (Brown-Driver-Briggs); perhaps an extinct dinosaur, a Diplodocus or Brachiosaurus, exact meaning unknown (Strongs).
 - b. Plural form of hmhb b^ehemah ^{#929}: beast, cattle, animal. Used 189x172vv. (Gen. 1:24,25,26; 2:20; 3:14).
 - c. Used beyond question only once (Job 40:15). Other possible uses (Isa. 30:6; Ps. 73:22).
 - d. Trying to identify Behemoth as a natural animal, such as the hippopotamus, or the elephant requires alterations to the plain text.
 - 1) Lurking in the river, and under the water (vv.21-23) could be a hippo, but not the powerful tail (v.17).
 - 2) Changing tail to trunk and making Behemoth an elephant solves the tail problem, but doesn't do well in putting the elephant in and under the water.
 - 3) Behemoth is impossible for any human to capture (v.24), and yet both hippopotami and elephants are subject to human capture.
 - 4) How can either the hippo, or the elephant, be considered the first of the ways of God? (v.19).
 - 5) Considering Behemoth to be a dinosaur solves four problems.
 - a) the water habitation
 - b) the mighty tail
 - c) the time-frame, first of the works of God, considering dinosaurs to be the fauna of the angelic earth prior to Gen. 1:2
 - d) the lack of other references in Scripture—whereas Leviathan is developed elsewhere, as Satanic information is vital for present revelation, dinosaur information is not vital for present revelation, and therefore not a part of inspired Scripture.
13. Leviathan.
 - a. Leviathan, ?tyw? iliviyathan ^{#3882}: serpent, sea monster, Leviathan (Job 41:1; Isa. 27:1). Parallel terms include:
 - 1) Rahab, bhr' rahab ^{#7293, #7294}: sea monster, Rahab (Job 9:13; 26:12,13; y 89:5-10; Isa. 51:9).

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 3 of 19

- 2) Sea monster/dragon, תנינ' tanniyn ^{#8577}:
serpent, dragon, sea monster (Job 7:12;
y 74:13,14; Isa. 27:1).
- 3) Satan, שטן satan ^{#7854}: adversary
(1st Chr. 21:1; Job 1:6,7,8,9,12;
2:1,2,3,4,6,7; Zech. 3:1&2).

Note: The identification of Satan as the Dragon is proved conclusively by Rev. 12:9; & 20:2.

- b. The Lord challenges Job to consider how he would fare face-to-face with Leviathan (Job 42:1-8 (41:25-32 in the Hebrew text)).
 - 1) Can you catch the Dragon like you would catch a fish? (vv.1,2,7).
 - 2) Can you bargain with the Dragon, or form a covenant? (vv.3&4).
 - 3) Will the Dragon be your toy, or your trophy? (vv.5&6).
 - 4) You will only battle this dragon one time (v.8). There is a note of irony here, because Job is still unaware that he has been “battling” Leviathan/Satan since chapter one!
14. The Lord then soliloquizes in declaration of Leviathan’s might (Job 41:9-34 (41:1-26 in the Hebrew Bible)).
 - a. The might of Leviathan is without parallel in the created universe (Job 41:9,10a,33). How then can anyone, including Leviathan challenge the Sovereignty of God? (Job 41:10b)
 - b. Far from “poetic hyperbole,” this passage describes the armor (vv.13,15), teeth (v.14), and fire-breathing (vv.18-21) of the dragon.
 - c. There is no other created being in the universe like the dragon (v.33).
 - d. This dragon is a king—over the sons of pride (fallen angels) (v.34).

Job 42

1. Job’s response is one of total repentance and confession (Job 42:1-6).

- a. Job confesses Divine Sovereignty and Omnipotence (v.2a).
- b. Job confesses the perfection of the counsel of God’s will, and the execution of the eternal purpose (v.2b; cf. Eph. 1:11; 3:11).
- c. Job confesses that he is the ignorant counsel darkener (v.3 cp. 38:2).
- d. Job confesses the proper teacher-student orientation between God and man (v.4).
- e. Job confesses his incomplete understanding (v.5).
- f. Job repents in his humility before the Lord (v.6).
2. The Lord then has words against Eliphaz, Bildad, & Zophar, but not Elihu (Job 42:7-9).
 - a. The wrathful message of the Lord’s should have also produced repentance on the part of Job’s three accusers (v.7).
 - b. Since the 3 accusers did not confess volitionally, the Lord will only restrain His wrath if Job confesses for them ritually (v.8).
 - c. Eliphaz, Bildad, & Zophar all submitted to the will of God, and allowed Job to mediate as a prophet/priest on their behalf (v.9).
3. Job’s intercessory prayer ministry on behalf of his three prosecutors is his final work-assignment in this book (Job 42:10).
4. Job then receives the human consolation and comfort that he was in need of in chapter 3 (Job 42:11).
5. The Lord rewarded Job with double-portion special blessings in time for Job’s enjoyment during the remainder of his time on earth (Job 42:12-17).
 - a. His financial net-worth was doubled.
 - b. His children were doubled with the addition of 7 more sons and 3 more daughters.
 - c. We can assume that his lifespan was doubled, with an additional 140 years beyond the events of this book.

Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 4 of 19

Exodus is the Book of Redemption. The nation of Israel is hopelessly enslaved in the land of Egypt. It appears that this condition will never change, and their fate will eternally be one of misery. Then God provides hope for a people without hope, and according to His gracious promise, delivers them from a bondage they could not deliver themselves from. Moses is the servant who declares the promise, and who brings the deliverance.

Like Genesis, Exodus is the whole Bible in miniature. The Bible is the Book of Redemption for the human race. We are hopelessly enslaved to sin. It appears that our condition will never change, and our fate will eternally be one of misery. Then God provides Hope for a people without hope, and according to His gracious promise, delivers us from a bondage we could not deliver ourselves from. Jesus Christ is the Son Who declares the promise, and Who brings the deliverance.

Title: Exodus is a Greek word meaning “departure.” The original Hebrew title w^e’lleh sh^emowth means “And these are the names.” The book of Exodus picks up right where Genesis left off—with the names of the Sons of Israel who descended to Egypt (Ex. 1:1-5 cp. Gen. 46:8-27).

Author: Moses is the author of Exodus (and all the Pentateuch). The Lord Jesus Christ attributed Exodus to Moses (Lk. 20:37 cp. Ex. 3:2-6), and no other proof should be required by those who name the Name of Christ.

Exodus 1

- Exodus begins with a summary of how Israel came to live in Egypt (Ex. 1:1-5).
- Exodus then mentions one of the most life-changing activities in the course of a nation’s history—the passing of a generation (Ex. 1:6; cf. Jdg. 2:6-10).
- The Sons of Israel were extremely blessed with temporal-life prosperity (Ex. 1:7). Note: there is no indication here of either spiritual-life prosperity, or adversity.
- Although the precise timing is not clear, it is certain that Israel became idolatrous during their time in Egypt (Josh. 24:14; Ezek. 20:7,8; 23:3ff.).

- A new Pharaoh arose who did not “know” (i.e. regard) Joseph (Ex. 1:8). [dý:yada^{#3045}: to know, regard. The emphasis is not simply an acquaintance with, but a recognition of value, and hence a regard for (Ex. 33:12; Hos. 13:5; Am. 3:2; Nah. 1:7).
- Determining the secular names of the four to six Pharaohs of the Biblical record from Genesis 40 through Exodus 14 is one of the most contested matters of Old Testament chronological studies.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 5 of 19

- a. Liberal scholars reject the Biblical dating, and attempt to make Biblical stories fit their secular archaeological dating.
 - b. Conservative scholars accept Biblical dating, and recognize the flaws (and fraud) of liberal, secular, archaeology.
 - c. The OT provides helpful time-frame passages (1st Kgs. 6:1; Jdg. 11:26).
 - d. The best date for the Exodus, utilizing Biblical dates, is 1446BC. Jacob's migration down to Egypt, then, becomes 1876BC, 430 years earlier (Ex. 12:40).
 - e. To give the Biblical Pharaohs then their secular names*:
 - 12th Dynasty: Middle Kingdom
 - 1) Senusret II (1897-1878BC), is the Pharaoh of Joseph's exaltation (1885BC).
 - 2) Senusret III (1878-1841BC), is the Pharaoh of Jacob's presentation (1876BC).
 - 3) The Pharaoh of Israel's subjugation need not have been the very next Pharaoh to arise, but most likely was, given the overall time-frame of Israel's bondage. Possibly Amenemhet III (1842-1797BC).
 - 18th Dynasty: New Kingdom
 - 4) Amenhotep I (1521-1524BC) is the Pharaoh at Moses' birth (1526BC).
 - 5) Tuthmosis III (1504-1450BC) is the Pharaoh of Moses' exile (1486BC).
 - 6) Amenhotep II (1453-1419BC) is the Pharaoh of the Exodus (1446BC).
7. The Subjugation of Israel is described in earthly terms (Ex. 1:9-14).
- a. The Lord had previously made a prophetic announcement to Abraham concerning this exact subjugation (Gen. 15:13-16).
 - b. Egypt's fear of Israel is a worldly fear based upon earthly wisdom (Ex. 1:9,10; Jms. 3:15).
 - c. The names of the storage cities, Pithom and Raamses, have been used by liberal scholars to support the "late" exodus, with Ramesses II as the Pharaoh of the Exodus.
 - d. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out, so that they were in dread of the sons of Israel (Ex. 1:12).
 - 1) This description also illustrates the history of the Church, which has actually thrived under persecution, and gone soft under prosperity.
 - 2) As Tertullian rightly said, "The blood of the martyrs was the seed of the church."
8. Increased fear motivated Pharaoh to increased evil (Ex. 1:15-22).
- a. Pharaoh attempted a secret policy of infanticide against all Hebrew males (vv. 15-21).
 - b. Two heroes among the Hebrew midwives include Shiphrah: "fair," and Puah: "splendid." These women were rewarded by the Lord, and honored by the Hebrew people (vv.20,21).
 - c. The Hebrew midwives feared God, and chose to disobey the unrighteous commands of secular authority (vv.17,21; cf. Acts 4:19; 5:29).
 - d. When the secret policy failed, Pharaoh transformed it into public policy (v.22).

Exodus 2

1. Amram and Jochebed are the unnamed parents (Ex. 2:1; 6:20).
2. Jochebed gave birth to a son (Moses) during Pharaoh's public policy of murdering Hebrew males (Ex. 2:2).
 - a. Miriam is already born (Ex. 2:4).
 - b. Aaron is also already born (Ex. 7:7).
- c. Moses was kept hidden for three months as an act of faith by Amram & Jochebed (Heb. 11:23).

* This list is rather speculative, in that the secular dates for the Egyptian reigns are themselves in some dispute. The list, though, is better than the 19th Dynasty, New Kingdom Pharaohs Seti I and Ramesses II, with all due respect to Charlton Heston's The Ten Commandments.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 6 of 19

3. When at the limit of human ability, Jochebed surrendered her son, Moses, into the Lord's care (Ex. 2:3).
4. Miriam stands by to see the deliverance of the Lord (Ex. 2:4 cf. 14:13).
5. The Lord rewarded Jochebed's faith, and blessed her with the return of her son (Ex. 2:5-10 & not precisely, but in a sense, Heb. 11:35).
 - a. Pharaoh's daughter saw the basket (v.5). This "daughter of Pharaoh" may even be the famous Hatshepsut.
 - b. She correctly recognizes him as a condemned Hebrew boy, and felt pity for him (v.6). l mʃ ;chamal #2550: to spare, pity, have compassion on (Used 41x, incl. 1st Sam. 15:3,9,15; 2nd Sam. 12:4,6).
 - c. Miriam recognizes the pity of Pharaoh's daughter, and steps forward with a courageous suggestion (v.7).
 - d. God the Father arranges such an ironic turn of events, and allows for Jochebed to be the wetnurse for her own son (vv.8,9).
 - e. Once he was weaned, Jochebed returned her son to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son (v.10).
 - 1) She named him Moses: drawn, because she drew him out of the water.
 - 2) Moses was given the best Egyptian education, and prospered in the Egyptian culture (Acts 7:22).
6. As an adult, Moses understood that God had sovereignly placed him in power for Israel's deliverance—but failed to seek the Lord's will in the timing and manner of that deliverance (Ex. 2:11-15; Acts 7:23-29; Heb. 11:24-27).
 - a. Moses disavowed his privileges as Pharaoh's daughter, and chose to identify with his brethren (Ex. 2:11; Acts 7:23; Heb. 11:24-26).
 - 1) This was an act of faith, considering temporal-life wealth and pleasure to be worthless (Phil. 3:7ff.).
 - 2) Moses anticipated an eternal reward for his voluntary sacrifice (Matt. 19:27-30).
 - b. He viewed himself as Israel's defender and deliverer (Acts 7:25).
 - c. In his pride, Moses assumed that God would honor his "secret" murder of an Egyptian (Ex. 2:12).
 - d. His fellow Hebrews, however, were not impressed by their "savior" (Ex. 2:13,14a; Acts 7:26-28).
 - e. Moses was afraid that his sin had been exposed (Ex. 2:14b), but he was not afraid of Pharaoh's attempt to kill him (Ex. 2:15; Heb. 11:27).
7. Moses settled in the land of Midian (Ex. 2:15-25).
 - a. Midian was the fourth out of six sons of Abraham and Keturah (Gen. 25:2). His nation was organized into five leading cities, derived from his five sons (1st Chr. 1:33; Num. 31:8).
 - b. Midianites/Ishmaelites were the (slave) traders who took Joseph to Egypt (Gen. 37:25-28,36).
 - c. During the wilderness wanderings, Midianites will join with Moabites in hiring Balaam to curse Israel (Num. 22:4-7).
 - d. Midianite women (along with the Moabite women) will play the lead role in seducing Israel into worshiping Baal of Peor (Num. 25). Cozbi is the most infamous of these Midianite women.
 - e. Midian was the gentile nation that Gideon was selected to destroy in the deliverance of Israel (Jdg. 6-8).
2. Reuel was Priest of Midian (Ex. 2:16; 3:1).
 - a. Priest of Midian. ?hkoohen #3548: priest (pagan, YHWH, Levitical, Aaronic, Zadokite, or high-).
 - b. Reuel (Ex. 2:18). l aʔr]eˈuʔel #7467: friend of God, or even shepherd of God. [ræˈaː #7453: friend, neighbor. h[ræˈeh #7464: shepherd.
 - c. Jethro (Ex. 3:1). ʔrɔjlythrow #3503: His abundance.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 7 of 19

- d. Although the Lord set apart Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob as His covenant nation among all other earthly nations, He did not abandon the gentiles. Like Melchizedek, priest of El-Elyon to the Jebusites of Salem (Gen. 14:18), Jethro is a priest of El to the Midianites.
3. Moses witnessed Reuel's seven daughters struggling in the face of opposition by other Midianite shepherds, and was moved to provide for, and protect them (Ex. 2:16,17).
- The shepherds clearly have no fear of El, to be hastling the priest's seven daughters.
 - The shepherds (plural) have an earthly fear of one "Egyptian."
4. Reuel is amazed that the daughters returned so quickly, and is impressed by the graciousness exhibited by the "Egyptian" (Ex. 2:18-20).
5. Moses accepted a position within the house of Reuel, shepherded Reuel's flocks, and married Reuel's daughter (Ex. 2:21,22).
- Zipporah. ḥrṣṣ ^{#6855}: bird.
 - Gershom. μνδ ^{#1647}: foreigner.
 - Not mentioned here, but Eliezer is the second son born to Moses (Ex. 4:20; 18:3,4; Acts 7:29). ʿlyʿezer ^{#461}: God is help.
6. While God was preparing Moses in Midian, He was preparing Israel in Egypt (Ex. 2:23-25), and bringing His period of longsuffering towards the Amorite to a close (Gen. 15:16).
- Egypt will have a change of Pharaohs (v.23a).
 - Thutmose III reigned from 1504-1450BC (with Queen Hatshepsut the real ruler, from 1498-1483BC).
 - Amenhotep II reigned from 1453-1419BC. (3 years of co-regency with Thutmose III).
 - Israel is being prepared:
 - to come out of Egypt with many possessions (Gen. 15:14),
 - as a mighty nation (Gen. 46:3),
 - to destroy seven nations greater and mightier than them (Deut. 7:1),

- after the Lord's longsuffering towards the Amorite has reached its limit (Gen. 15:16).

Exodus 3

- Moses was faithful as a son in the house of Jethro (Ex. 3:1), but will be called to be faithful as a servant of the Lord.
 - The "rear part" of the wilderness.
 - Horeb. The Mountain of God.
Perhaps an even more controversial debate than the investigations of the Pharaoh's, the location of Mt. Horeb is in considerable dispute. Mt. Horeb & Mt. Sinai are certainly two different names for one location. Horeb may refer to a range, and Sinai may refer to a specific peak. The traditional location is on the southern end of the Sinai peninsula. A better location would be to the east, in Midian. See below, on the route of the Exodus, and the parting of the ¹ ʾApy "yam-suwph (Red Sea).
- The Angel of the Lord appeared to Moses in the form of a blazing fire (Ex. 3:2-9).
 - The fire appeared in the midst of a bush, and yet did not consume the bush (v.2).
 - Having caught Moses' attention through a work of Divine power, the Lord uttered His Divine call (vv.3,4).
 - The Lord warned Moses concerning the holiness of His presence (v.5).
 - The Lord identified Himself by His covenant relationship to Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob (v.6a; Gen. 28:11-22; 35:9-15).
 - Moses hid his face in fear and humility before the Lord (v.6b).
 - The Lord promised to deliver Israel from their bondage (vv.7-9).
- The Lord instructs Moses to go to Egypt, and be His tool in Israel's deliverance (Ex. 3:10).
 - This quickly brings about Moses' sense of inadequacy (Ex. 3:11).
 - The Lord assures Moses with a promise and a sign that can only be manifest to

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 8 of 19

Moses after the redemption of Israel is secured (Ex. 3:12).

4. Moses accepts the challenge, and desires to have an intimacy with the Lord even greater than the intimacy Jacob/Israel enjoyed (Ex. 3:13 cf. Gen. 32:29).
5. The Lord (𐤅𐤅𐤅𐤅 YHWH ^{#3068}) revealed Himself to Moses as “I Am” (𐤅𐤅𐤅𐤅, ehyeh, from 𐤅𐤅𐤅𐤅; hayah ^{#1961}), and gave the name of “I Am” to Israel as the significance to the memorial name YHWH (Ex. 3:14,15). The “I AM” principle is more fully developed by the Lord Jesus Christ in the Gospel of John.
6. The Lord then gave Moses instructions for gathering the elders of Israel, and petitioning Pharaoh for a wilderness sacrifice (Ex. 3:16-22).
 - a. The Lord stated that the elders of Israel would listen to Moses (v.18).
 - b. The Lord stated that Pharaoh would require “a strong hand” (compulsion) to let Israel go (vv.19,20).
 - c. The Lord prophesied that the Egyptian people will send Israel away with much plunder (vv.19-22).

Exodus 4

1. Moses has no faith to accept the Lord’s word (Ex. 4:1 cp. 3:18).
 - a. The Lord gave Moses three signs to perform in the presence of the elders of Israel, so that they will believe Moses’ words (Ex. 4:2-9). The serpent here is a Vj 𐤅𐤅: nachash ^{#5175} (Gen. 3:1ff.; Job 26:13; Isa. 27:1).

5. On the way to Egypt, the Lord revealed to Moses the ten-plague schedule that would be necessary to break Pharaoh’s hardened heart (Ex. 4:21-23).
6. Also on the way to Egypt, the Lord arrived to kill Moses (Ex. 4:24-26).
 - a. Moses had allowed Zipporah’s negative volition to prevent his son’s circumcision (v.25). Gershom? Eliezer?
 - b. Zipporah angrily circumcizes the boy, and throws the foreskin at “his” feet (v.26). Moses’ feet? The Lord’s feet?
 - c. Zipporah does not appear again until Exodus 18:2, where it appears that at Exodus 4:26 Moses sent her back to Jethro.
7. The Lord sends Aaron to Moses, and they go to the elders of Israel with the Lord’s message (Ex. 4:27-31).

 - b. On the 10th of Abib/Nisan, every family household is to set apart a lamb for sacrifice (Ex. 12:3,4). This lamb must be an unblemished male (v.5).
 - c. On the 14th day of Abib/Nisan, all Israel is to slaughter the lamb (v.6).
 - d. Blood from the lamb must be spread upon the doorposts of the house where it is eaten (v.7).
 - e. The entire lamb must be eaten that night, in great haste, in readiness to depart (vv.8-11).
2. The Lord explains the need for blood on the doorposts, as the mark of faith, by Israel, in the promised deliverance by God (Ex. 12:12,13).
 - a. The redemption had previously been promised.
 - b. Faith appropriated the promise, to the application and benefit of the individual.
 - c. The Lord's observation of the sacrificial blood causes Him to "pass over" the individuals who responded to His promise with faith.
3. The picture of this redemption story is the most beautiful picture of the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Cor. 5:7).

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 13 of 19

 5. Pharaoh "called for" Moses and Aaron at night, and "said" (through the messenger), "Rise up, get out . . . and go" (Ex. 12:31).
 - a. This was a total surrender of will, permitting the total departure of Israel—every man, woman, child, and animal (Ex. 12:32a).
 - b. This was a recognition that only through a right orientation to Israel would any gentile nation receive Divine blessing (Ex. 12:32b).
 6. The Egyptian people assisted in the rapid departure of Israel (Ex. 12:33-36).
 7. The Exodus Route—leg #1: from Rameses to Succoth (Ex. 12:37). Apparently, all in one day (Ex. 12:51).
 - a. The population which departed was 600,000 men (perhaps 2-2.4 million total population, men, women, & children).
 - b. They were accompanied by an unknown number of non-Jews, called a "mixed multitude" (Ex. 12:38).
 - c. Rameses. $\text{SS}\text{m}\text{I}\text{r}'$ ra'mecec ^{#7486}: Egypt.orig. child of the sun. A region in Goshen (Gen. 47:11). A storage city in Goshen built by Hebrew slaves (Ex. 1:11). Should not be confused with the Pharaohs named Ramses.
 - d. Succoth. $\text{t}\text{W}\text{K}\text{O}\text{L}\text{u}\text{k}\text{k}\text{owth}$ ^{#5523}: booths. The name of a stop by Jacob on his way back to Canaan from Haran (Gen. 33:17). The name of the first stop on the Exodus Route (Ex. 12:37; Num. 33:5).

8. The sojourn in Egypt was 430 years (Ex. 12:40,41). 400 years of bondage (Gen. 15:13), after thirty years of peace with the Egyptians.
9. The Lord instructs Israel that this very night, the Passover night, is to be remembered eternally as the night of Israel's redemption & deliverance (Ex. 12:42-49).

Exodus 13

1. On the day following the Passover, Moses begins to instruct Israel concerning the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Ex. 13:3-10; cf. 12:15-20).
2. The Lord also began to instruct Israel concerning new responsibilities that will be theirs when they enter into the promised land—such as the redemption of the first-born (Ex. 13:1,2,11-16).
 - a. The redemption of Israel was the Lord demanding His firstborn (Ex. 4:22).
 - b. The work of power that accomplished this cost Egypt the lives of their firstborn (Ex. 4:23; 11:5; 12:29).
 - c. The ultimate work of Redemption will be accomplished by the Firstborn of all Creation (Col. 1:15).
3. The Lord provided clear and obvious guidance for the Exodus Route—a cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night (Ex. 13:17-22).
 - a. He sovereignly chose to have Israel avoid the northern road along the Mediterranean: the way of the land of the Philistines (v.17). They were not yet ready for that test.
 - b. He led them around by the way of the wilderness to the $^1\text{W}\text{S}\text{A}\text{M}\text{y}$ yam-suwph (v.18).
 - 1) $^1/\text{S}$ suwph ^{#5487}: to come to an end, cease.
 - 2) $^1\text{W}\text{S}$ suwph ^{#5488}: reed, rushes.
 - 3) $\text{thn ejuqr}\text{an qat}\text{vassan ten eruthran thalassan}$ (LXX & Acts 7:36; Heb. 11:26).
 - 4) Yam-suwph may be rendered sea of reeds, or farthest sea (sea at the end/border). In the Egyptian context, that would be a preferred etymology.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 14 of 19

- 5) Eruthran thalassan, however must be rendered red sea, as eruthros is the Greek color “red.”
- 6) Red Sea is not only the long-standing English name, but it is also the currently applied modern name to the body of water between Egypt and Saudi Arabia.
- c. As Israel marched, they marched in a battle formation, Wl [;pyvini]
 - 1) They had no training, or experience in war, but they’re going to learn.
 - 2) The first lesson: the battle is the lord’s (Ex. 14:14; 1st Sam. 17:47).
- d. Israel carried the bones of Joseph as they promised to do (Ex. 13:19; Gen. 50:24,25).
- e. The Exodus Route—leg #2: from Succoth to Etham (Ex. 13:20).
 - 1) Etham. ptaēetham^{#864}: Egypt.orig. Meaning uncertain.
 - 2) On the edge of the wilderness.
- f. The Lord protected and provided guidance for Israel by means of the cloud and pillar (Ex. 13:21,22).
 - 1) They travelled day & night on these initial stages.
 - 2) The cloud provided shade in the heat of the day, while the fire provided heat in the cold of the night.
 - 3) Both cloud and fire provided clear direction to follow.

Exodus 14

1. The Exodus Route—leg #3: from Etham to the Red Sea. The Lord sovereignly directed the direction of travel, and the establishment of each encampment (Ex. 14:1,2).
 - a. Locations are all uncertain for Pi-hahiroth (place where sedge grows), Migdol (tower), and Baal-zephon (lord of the north) (v.2).
 - b. Wherever Pi-hahiroth was, it meant that Israel must “turn back” (bWV shuw^{#7725}) from the direction of their travel between Succoth and Etham (Ex. 14:2).
2. The purpose for this change of direction, and deliberate encampment was to lure Pharaoh into another opportunity for the glory of God (Ex. 14:3,4).

- a. The site for this encampment and the yam-suwph crossing is another matter of debate.
- b. The “traditional” crossing has Israel passing through the Bitter Lakes, at the northern end of the Gulf of Suez, then proceeding southeast down the Sinai peninsula to the “traditional” Mt. Sinai at the southern tip.
- c. An alternate, minority, and often ignored view of the yam-suwph crossing has Israel passing through the Gulf of Aqaba, then proceeding south down the Arabian peninsula to a Midianite Mt. Horeb/Mt. Sinai.
3. Pharaoh acts in accordance with the plan of God, and dispatches his chariot army to retrieve his “lost” slaves (Ex. 14:5-9).
4. The children of Israel panick because they are trapped with no human escape possible (Ex. 14:10-12).
 - a. The wilderness has shut them in (Ex. 14:3).
 - b. The Egyptian armies had Israel trapped against the sea (Ex. 14:9).
5. Moses gives Israel the answer every believer needs to hear (Ex. 14:13,14).
 - a. Do not fear (v.13a; Jn. 6:20; 16:33).
 - b. Stand by and see the salvation of the Lord which He will accomplish for you today (v.13b; Jn. 1:50,51; 5:20).
 - c. The Lord will fight for you while you keep silent (v.14; Isa. 30:15).
6. Moses is instructed by the Lord to “divide” the sea, so that Israel may go through the midst of the sea on dry land (Ex. 14:16). [qB;baqa^{#1234}: to cleave, break open, break through (Num. 16:31; Zech. 14:4).
7. The angel of God (pillar of cloud) positioned Himself between the Egyptian armies and the children of Israel, guarding their rear, while the sea was parted, and Israel passed through (Ex. 14:19-22). This is Exodus Route—leg #3: through the yam-suwph.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 15 of 19

- a. The path was “dry ground” (Ex. 14:16,21,22a).
- b. The walls were water (Ex. 14:22b).
8. The Egyptian armies pursued Israel behind the pillar of fire, with hardened hearts, and confused minds (Ex. 14:17,18,23-25).
9. At the Lord’s instruction, Moses brought the waters of the Red Sea “down” upon the armies of Egypt—a total destruction of the Egyptian forces (Ex. 14:26-29).
10. The salvation of Israel was a work of Divine power, accomplishing what Israel could not do, and providing a redemption from bondage with no turning back.
11. Israel was instructed in the power and majesty of God. They saw what He told them they would see (Ex. 14:13,30,31).

Exodus 15

1. Israel’s response to the Lord’s salvation was to praise the Lord in song (Ex. 15:1).
2. Redemption from bondage is described as a triumph of the Lord’s (Ex. 15:2). So it is with the believer, who has been redeemed from the bondage of sin (2nd Cor. 2:14-16).
3. The might of God’s power, in deliverance of man, cannot be compared to any angelic being (Ex. 15:11,12).
 - a. $\text{𐤀𐤍𐤋}^{\#410}$: God (the one true God), god (false gods), divine hero, angel.
 - b. The deliverance of Israel was not just a political/social separation of an earthly nation from out of another earthly nation. It was a spiritual battle with the servants of God fighting against the Satanic servants of darkness (Ps. 78:42).
 - c. The armies of Pharaoh were plunged under the waves, but the armies of Satan were swallowed by the earth (Ex. 15:12; cf. 7:12; Num. 16:31-34; Lk. 8:31).
4. The destruction of Egypt has left the other gentile nations quivering in fear (Ex. 15:14-16). So it is, with the demonic allies of the defeated fallen-angelic armies (Col. 2:15; Jms. 2:19).

5. Miriam the prophetess led a women’s ministry in praising the Lord (Ex. 15:20,21).
6. The Exodus Route—leg #4: from the Red Sea, three days through the wilderness of Shur, to Marah (Ex. 15:22-26; Num. 33:8).
 - a. The waters of Marah: bitter were indeed bitter—that’s why the place was called bitter!
 - b. The people grumbled. $\text{𐤁𐤍}^{\#3885}$: to lodge, remain overnight (Gen. 19:2; 24:23,25; Ex. 23:18; 34:25), to grumble (Ex. 15:24; 16:2,7,8; 17:3). $\text{𐤁𐤍}^{\#4411}$: lodging place, inn (Gen. 42:27; 43:21; Ex. 4:24).
 - c. Hence, this episode, and many to come, are ironic plays on words. Israel has come here to luwn (stay the night), and proceeds to luwn (grumble) about the bitter water.
 - d. Moses was given a miracle to perform: a tree was cast into the water, turning bitter water into sweet (Ex. 15:25a).
 - e. The Lord gave Israel the first of many statutes, and tested them regarding their willingness to obey His statutes (Ex. 15:25b,26; Deut. 28:58-61).
7. The Exodus Route—leg #5: Marah to Elim (Ex. 15:27; Num. 33:9). Locations between here and Kadesh-Barnea (Num. 13:1) are all uncertain. “Traditional” scholars try to find likely spots in the Sinai peninsula. Other likely spots have been found in the Arabian peninsula, east of the Gulf of Aqaba.

Exodus 16

1. Israel’s next grumbling incident occurs in the Wilderness of Sin (Ex. 16:1). $\text{𐤁𐤍}^{\#5512}$: thorn? clay? deriv. & meaning uncertain. It has nothing to do with our English word, “sin,” although Israel certainly did a lot of that!
2. Israel grumbled because of a lack of food.
 - a. Recognition of a legitimate need is an opportunity for God-fearing believers to go to the Father and pray for that provision.
 - b. Recognition of a legitimate need is not the time for God-fearing believers to

Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 16 of 19

- regret the loss of their previously enjoyed Satanic-provision (Ex. 16:13).
- c. Memories of how great things used to be may not be very accurate for carnal believers!
 - d. The Lord promised Israel that He was going to lead them safely into the land of Canaan. Consequently, He cannot allow them to starve to death in the wilderness.
3. The Lord described for Moses a new schedule, in which He would “rain” “bread” from heaven, and provide for Israel on a daily basis (Ex. 16:4,5).
 - a. Each day, each family should gather one day’s worth of bread.
 - b. On the sixth day, each family should gather two day’s worth of bread.
 - c. This schedule is another test for Israel.
 4. Moses & Aaron explained the food-gathering procedures in advance (Ex. 16:6-12).
 - a. They explained that there would be meat to gather each evening.
 - b. They explained that there would be bread to gather each morning.
 - c. They warned that daily quantities were to be gathered five days a week, and a double-portion was to be gathered only on the sixth day.
 - d. Israel observed the Lord’s glory, in the cloud, giving Moses this instruction (Ex. 16:10-12). It wasn’t Moses providing the bread; it was God the Father through the Lord Jesus Christ (Jn. 6:32,33).
 5. The Lord provided, as He said He would (Ex. 16:13-36).
 - a. Quails arrived in the evening, flying into the camp (v.13a).
 - b. Dew appeared in the morning, around the camp (v.13b).
 - c. As the dew evaporated, Israel beheld a fine, flake-like thing, fine as frost (v.14).
 - d. These flakes could be either baked, or boiled (v.23).
 - e. They resembled white coriander seeds (v.31b). The small & spicy coriander seeds

- of Palestine & Egypt are gray-white in color.
- f. They tasted like wafers with honey (v.31c).
6. Nobody knew what it was, and so they asked, “What is it?” (v.15a).
 - a. Moses told them it was the bread that God had given them to eat (v.15b).
 - b. They called the bread Manna: what is it? (v.31a).
 7. Of course, there were the typical human-being knuckleheads.
 - a. Who tried saving some overnight (v.20).
 - b. Who didn’t gather a double-portion on Friday, and went hungry on Saturday (v.27).
 8. The significance of the Sabbath is given by the Lord in very clear terms (Ex. 16:23-26,28-30).
 9. The Lord had Israel keep a memorial of the manna for future generations to observe (Ex. 16:32-24).
 10. Manna became the staple diet for Israel during their entire wilderness wandering (Ex. 16:35). The quail is not mentioned here, and the quail miracle did not repeat itself for over a year, until Israel set out from Sinai (Num. 11:4-9,18-20,31-34).

Exodus 17

1. Israel’s journey took them to Rephidim, where they were tested with a no-water situation (Ex. 17:1-7).
 - a. Rephidim ^{#7508}: rests, resting places.
 - b. Quarrelling against Moses = testing the Lord (Ex. 17:2; Deut. 6:16; Matt. 4:7; 1st Cor. 10:9).
 - c. Moses turned the test over to the Lord, and was used by the Lord to teach another lesson in grace provision (Ex. 17:4-6).
 - d. Rephidim is renamed Massa and Meribah (Ex. 17:7). hbyrim hSm'
 - 1) hSm' maccah ^{#4532}: temptation.
 - 2) hbyrim meriybah ^{#4809}: contention.
2. While they were camped at Rephidim, the Amalekites attacked them (Ex. 17:8-16).
 - a. Amalek was a grandson of Esau (Gen. 36:12), but a son of a concubine, and the Amalekites are not considered Edomites.

Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 17 of 19

- b. This is the first appearance of Joshua (Ex. 17:9). In times of crisis, God will lift up His chosen instruments.
- c. The earthly battle ebbed and flowed depending upon the strength of Israel's spiritual leader (Ex. 17:10-13).
- d. When Moses needed help, Aaron & Hur were there to support his hands.
- e. Joshua reaped the victory, but the Lord did the work.
- f. The Lord promises to utterly blot out the memory of Amalek, and charges Moses to commit this task to Joshua (Ex. 17:14-16).
- g. Saul will spare Agag, king of the Amalekites (1st Sam. 15:9-33). David will crush them (1st Sam. 27:8,9; 2nd S. 8:11,12), and the final remnant is destroyed in the time of Hezekiah (1st Chr. 4:43).

Exodus 18

1. Moses is reunited with Jethro, Zipporah, Gershom, & Eliezer (Ex. 18:1-7).
2. Jethro is blessed by Moses' report concerning YHWH's blessings upon Israel (Ex. 18:8-11).
3. Jethro conducts a Midianite worship service for the blessing of Moses, Aaron, & the elders of Israel (Ex. 18:12).
4. Jethro observed Moses doing too much by himself (Ex. 18:13-26).
5. Jethro departs from Moses (Ex. 18:27), but Zipporah, Gershom & Eliezer evidently remain (1st Chr. 23:15-17). Zipporah's brother, Hobab, apparently also remains with Israel (Num. 10:29-32; Jdg. 4:11).

Exodus 19

1. Israel arrives at the foot of Mt. Sinai (Ex. 19:1,2).
2. Moses ascends the mountain to address the Lord Who promised him a return to this very spot (Ex. 19:3,4; cp. 3:12).
3. The Lord introduces a new covenant, a conditional covenant, which spells out a wonderful way of life if Israel obeys God's Word (Ex. 19:5,6).

- a. The conditional nature of this covenant (the Mosaic Covenant) sets it quite apart from the unconditional Abrahamic Covenant.
- b. The blessings upon Israel were such that they will be a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation (Ex. 19:6). This is not to be confused with the Church (1st Pet. 2:5,9).
- c. This conditional covenant is not intended to be the final basis upon which God will deal with Israel.
 - 1) God intends to make a New Covenant with Israel (Jer. 31:31,32).
 - 2) God intends for this covenant to grow obsolete, and be ready to disappear (Heb. 8:13). The Law is not abolished, but fulfilled by Jesus Christ (Mt. 5:17).
 - 3) The intent of this covenant is to serve as a tutor until the mystery of the stewardship of grace can be unfolded (Gal. 3:19,23-26).

4. Moses presents the introductory covenant proposal to the elders of Israel, and all Israel agreed to the terms (Ex. 19:7,8).
5. The Mosaic Covenant is established with the nation of Israel fearfully limited to the foot of the mountain, and Moses their mediator approaching the holiness of God by himself (Ex. 19:9-25).
 - a. Twice Moses had to check on the safe distance for the people (vv.17,25).
 - b. A pre-Levitical priesthood is mentioned (Ex. 19:22,24), which is assumed to be a patriarchal priesthood, such as the priesthoods of Abel (Gen. 4:4), Noah (Gen. 8:20), & Job (Job 1:5).
 - c. The terrifying conditions of this day are contrasted with the comforting conditions of the Church Age believer (Heb. 12:18-24).

Exodus 20

1. The Mosaic Covenant consists of a Law that Israel was expected to abide under as a constitution for their new nation.
 - a. The law contains moral, civil, and ceremonial components.
 - b. The principles of the moral law are restated in the New Testament for Church Age

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 18 of 19

- applications, not under Law, but under grace.
- c. The pattern for civil government can be emulated by gentile nations for temporal-life blessing.
 - 1) The principle of nationalism for temporal-life blessings is a feature of the Dispensation of Gentiles: Age of Human Government. Nowhere in that portion of Scripture do we have a detailed statement of how God expects nations to conduct their business.
 - 2) National faithfulness to God's revealed Word results in national blessing (Deut. 28:1-14), and national rebellion against God's revealed Word results in national cursing (Deut. 28:15-68).
 - 3) Additionally, gentile nations are blessed or cursed in proportion to their foreign policy for or against Israel (Gen. 12:3; Num. 24:9).
 2. The basis for the Law is the character of YHWH, and His rights as Israel's Redeemer (Ex. 20:2).
 3. Commandment #1: You shall have no other gods before Me (Ex. 20:3).
 - a. Of course, there are no other gods (Isa. 44:6-8).
 - b. The fallen angels, however, view themselves as gods, and seduce human beings into their worship (Gal. 4:8; 1st Cor. 8:4-6; 10:20; 1st Chr. 16:25,26).
 - c. God is the only God, and in keeping with His name, Jealous, does not tolerate human worship of any other so called 'god' (Ex. 34:14).
 4. Commandment #2: You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth. You shall not worship them or serve them (Ex. 20:4-6).
 - a. Idolatry is absolutely evil, because it mocks the nature of God, and His creation.
 - b. God is the One who made all things, and cannot be represented by any made thing (Deut. 4:15-19; Isa. 40:18-20).
 - c. The Creator is expected to be served by His creation, but idolatry turns that around—the idol-maker serves the idol!
 - d. A danger of idolatry, is that it becomes a heritage for God-haters (Ex. 20:5,6).
 5. Commandment #3: You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain (Ex. 20:7).
 - a. This would involve false vows with God as a witness (Lev. 19:12).
 - b. This would also involve not giving the appropriate worship that His name is entitled to (1st Chr. 16:29; Ps. 29:2).
 - c. This would also involve bearing the name of Christ, but not living that life appropriately (1st Pet. 4:14-16).
 6. Commandment #4: Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy (Ex. 20:8-11).
 - a. The principle to Israel preceded the formal law (Ex. 16:23-30).
 - b. The principle to the human race preceded everything else (Gen. 2:2,3).
 - c. The principle of Sabbath rest is a daily principle for Church Age believers (Heb. 3:13; 4:7,9).
 7. Commandment #5: Honor your father and your mother (Ex. 20:12).
 - a. This is the first commandment with a promise (Eph. 6:2).
 - b. The consequences for faithfully obeying this command are a prolonging of days (Ex. 20:12).
 - 1) Under normal circumstances, the number of our days is predetermined in the eternal counsel of God's will (Job 14:5; Ps. 139:16; Matt. 6:27).
 - 2) However, the Sin Unto Death shortens that span in the permissive will of God (1st Jn. 5:16).
 - 3) Hezekiah is a Biblical example for a potential Divine lifespan extension (2nd Kgs. 20:6; Isa. 38:5).
 8. Commandment #6: You shall not murder (Ex. 20:13).
 - a. $\text{ḵ} \text{ṣ} \text{ṣ} \text{ḥ}$; ratsach ^{#7523}: to murder.

One Year Through the Bible	by Pastor Bob Bolender
Week 5 – Job 38 to 42; Exodus 1 to 20	Page 19 of 19

- b. This command does not prohibit capital punishment, self defense, or just war in the service of one's nation—all of which are sanctioned elsewhere in Scripture.
- 9. Commandment #7: You shall not commit adultery (Ex. 20:14).
 - a. ¹ אֶלְנָאֵפֶּת ^{#5003}: to commit adultery.
 - b. This is a separate, more specific, prohibition than חֲנִיף ^{#2181} zanah: to commit fornication, play the harlot.'
 - c. The Law will expand upon this Commandment thoroughly and graphically (i.e. Lev. 18).
- 10. Commandment #8: You shall not steal (Ex. 20:15).
 - a. Violators of this commandment are in defiance of the Sovereignty of God Who provides all good things.
 - b. Violators of this commandment are in defiance of the Sovereignty of God Who commanded mankind to work upon this earth.
- 11. Commandment #9: You shall not bear false witness (Ex. 20:16).
 - a. Violators of this Commandment are in opposition to the very nature of God's essence (Eph. 4:15,21,24,25).
 - b. Violators of this Commandment are in conformity to the very nature of God's adversary (Jn. 8:44; 1st Jn. 2:4).
- 12. Commandment #10: You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor (Ex. 20:17). The mental attitude behind many of the above commandments is summarized here. Thus, coveting serves as a fitting conclusion, even summary of the above commandments.
- 13. The Lord Jesus Christ summarized the 10 Commandments into 2 Commandments (Matt. 22:34-40).
 - a. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind (Mt. 22:37; Deut. 6:5). This covers Ten Commandments #1-4
 - b. YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF (Mt. 22:39; Lev. 19:18). This covers Ten Commandments #5-10.
 - c. The Apostle Paul summarizes the entire Law into b. above, since b. inherently includes a. as its foundation (Gal. 5:14).
- 14. The children of Israel were terrified at what they observed from a distance (Ex. 20:18-21).
- 15. The Lord repeats the prohibition against idolatry, and warns Israel to not become imitators of the Canaanite worship system (Ex. 20:22-26).
